Magazines are sent by surface mail. For other delivery options, including first class mail and airmail, contact the US Chess office. For members receiving a printed magazine with an address outside of the US, Canada, or Mexico, a $25 per year postage surcharge is added for those receiving the magazine monthly and $12.50 per year for those receiving the magazine bi-monthly. The U.S. Chess Trust offers a limited number of free one-year US Chess memberships to students attending a Title I school who have never been US Chess members before (uschesstrust.org/chess-for-youth). For information about the group membership program, which organizations can use to make memberships cheaper for K-12 players, see <https://secure2.uschess.org/voucher/index.php>. A person in prison may become a member for an annual rate of $18. The membership includes 12 printed issues of the Chess Life magazine. Affiliates receive $3 commission on all memberships that are purchased through them except the two-month, international online, blind, group, and prison memberships.
